

COMMON

Home

By entering the website link user will be redirected to home page in which users can view products and search it but in order to add product to cart or by the product user needed to be login or signup a login page will popped when an unregistered user press the cart button or buy now button.

Signup

For user and admin both have same signup page. In signup page information about users like username, email, mobile number and strong valid password also collected and will include salting and hashing in password for better security and finally there will be otp verification.

Login

Login page also common for admin and user, in login page the user signs in with username and password which they have registered during signup. and there be option for remember me and for resetting password by otp verification.

USER

User Home

After successful login user will be redirected to user home. In user home top navigation, there will be searching bar for better availability of product for users and in content area there will be category-based products and an animating banner and some random products will be shown, when user clicks on any category appropriate products are shown to the users.

Products

In products users will be able to see the product name, old price, new price, specs, rating, and some description about the user. when user click on the products, an individual page for the product will be shown along with the product details, and there will be option for users for rating about the product.

Wishlist

There will be a Wishlist option for users for pinning their favourite products. For adding to wish list there will be a heart icon to add to Wishlist and there can be removed from the Wishlist when user toggle the heart button.

Cart

Users will be able to add products to cart once a product added there cant be again added instead user want change the quantity from cart side, in cart side there will be all products that user added and along with each product there will be a dropout for quantity and option for delete for deleting the product from cart , at the bottom of the cart there will be some information about the cart there are cart quantity, discount , GST ,delivery charge and a total price subtracting discount amount and by including delivery charge and GST. And finally, a buy now button which will redirect to checkout.

Account

By tapping account button user will be redirected to account related page in that page there will be several links in left bar, they are following.

- 1)- Address -----> Users can be updated their delivery address
- 2)-Update Password -----> Users can be update their password
- 3)-Orders ----->Users can track their orders
- 4)-About us ----->Users can see our company innovation
- 5)-Contact us -----> Users can contact us for any kind of help

Buy Now

After user press on buy now button user will be redirected to checkout page in which user can be set payment method and add new address if needed and when pressing the proceed button user will be redirected to order summary page.

Order summary

In order summary users can see the final summary of the product and their pricing for confirmation, by pressing again proceed user will be redirected to payment process.

Payment Process

In payment process page will load if user select e-pay or if user select cash on delivery user will be redirected to captcha page. In payment process user wants to pay the amount of the product. And by clicking proceed user will be redirected to captcha page in which user can give final confirmation.

Logout

By clicking logout button user will be redirected to login page else account will not be logged out until 3 months.

ADMIN

Admin Home

In login page when admin email and password match admin will be redirected to admin home and admin dashboard will be seen and in admin left bar there will be following links.

- 1)- Dashboard
- 2)-Users
- 2)-Products
- 3)-Category
- 4)-Logout

Dashboard

In dashboard it shows 3 graphs which shows the orders growth, users register rate, product rating and product stock statics. When click on each of the graph a detailed page of the graph will show in a new page in tables.

Users

By clicking on users, admins can see registered user's details such as user id, username, user email, user country, user ordered count and a delete button to delete users. by clicking the count of orders it will redirect to a page where it shows that user orders list.

Products

when admin clicks on the products it will redirect a page where it shows the table and above the table there will be a button to add products, a button for edit product by clicking the add product button it will redirect to a page contain form to add products which will include the information about the product price, specs, discount, delivery date and some description about the products. In table there will be a portion for product id, product name, product price, stock, and its rating 2 buttons for delete and edit products.

Category

When admin clicks on the category admin can be see the product category in a table and above table there a will a button which will redirect to form page which used add category. when clicks on the table category it will show the table of the that category products.

Logout

When admin press on logout admin will be redirected to login page